The second quota of men of Crow Wing county, 109 in number, passed on by local and district boards and accepted for military service, has been announced. They are now really in government service, and are under obligation to hold themselves in readiness to report for military duty. The first list included 39 names and this with today's names makes a total of 148 men. The county's quota is 233, to which may be added 10 per cent or 23 more to provide for any loss at cantonments.

The government has made a statement regarding appeals from the action of the district board. These must be filed with the district board and cannot be received if sent direct to the president, the provost marshal general, member of congress or any other place than to the district board itself.

The only cases in which there is an appeal to the president are cases in which a claim for discharge on the ground of engagement in agriculture or industry has been made in the district board. There is no appeal to the president from the action of the local board in dependency or other cases whose determination is within the jurisdiction of the local board.

APPROVED BY HOUSE

Washington, Sept. 14.—The administration's soldiers' and sailors' insurance bill, amended so as to equalize the allowances of the dependents of enlisted men and officers, passed the house.

As the bill went to the senate privates and officers and their dependents stand on exactly the same basis. Benefits and allowances now provided for are slightly higher than those originally proposed as the minimum for privates by the committee and considerably lower than the maximum amounts which officers and their dependents would have received.

President Wilson scored a personal victory in the adoption by 141 to 77 of an amendment raising from $5,000 to $10,000 the maximum amount of optional insurance policies that the government would issue to all the men in the service.

SUFFERING CATS! GIVE THIS MAN THE GOLD MEDAL

Let folks step on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this Cincinnati authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug called Freezone, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out.

This drug is a sticky ether compound, but dries at once and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue.

It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of Freezone obtained at any drug store will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Cut this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.

ROOSEVELT FLIES IN LIBERTY PLANE

Mineola, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt gained the distinction of being the first civilian to make a flight in an airplane propelled by the new military motor invented for the government. The flight was made from the Hempstead aviation field and for a half hour the machine piloted by H. J. Blakeley, an army instructor attained a speed varying from 90 to 110 miles an hour, reaching an altitude of 5,000 feet.

The colonel arrived at the aviation field just as Blakeley was "tuning up" the "Liberty" motor for a test flight and he immediately asked to accompany the instructor. Blakeley informed Colonel Roosevelt that he had not yet had an opportunity to test the motor and advised him to wait until he had made a trial flight.

The colonel assured Blakeley that he was not a novice at flying, having flown with Archibald Hoxsey at St. Louis seven years ago.

"You need not make a trial flight without me," the colonel told Blakeley. "I am willing to go along unless you object."

ARE HIT BY DRY VICTORY

St. Louis County (Minn.) Will Not Renew Saloon Licenses.

Duluth, Sept. 14.—St. Louis county, the largest county in the United States, will be "bone dry" within six months.

Of 22,000 votes cast at a recent election the dries carried the issue with a plurality of 3,790 votes.

Although March 25, 1918, is set as the date for closing of saloons there will be many who will be forced out of business before that time.

It has been announced that licenses which expire before this date will not be renewed and there are nearly a hundred of these.

One hundred and eighty-four saloons are affected by the new law. These are scattered in several towns in the rural districts, Duluth having been dry since July 1.

GARY FORESEES LONG WAR

Steel Corporation Magnate Also Has Faith in Russia.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel corporation, believes the United States is engaged in a war that will be long and bloody.

"I can see no reason for believing that the war will end soon," he said here. "I don't see how either side at the present time can make terms which would be acceptable to the other side. It may be a matter of years. Sweden and all the countries of South America may become involved."

"I am more optimistic than most people about Russia," said Mr. Gary. "Russia, I believe, will work out its problems and regain its equilibrium. Russia is going to be a factor, a big factor, in this war."

"20,000 Leagues Under the Sea"

Even the throbbing brain of an Edgar Allen Poe or a Guy de Maupassant could not conceive a drama staged on the ocean's floor, with fantastic marine flora and fauna as settings, with men in uncanny diving suits as actors and with blinking deep sea monsters as the audience.

This reversal of dramatic traditions was brought about by Jules Verne in his "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea", which has been made into a photo-play and will be presented at the Best theatre Sept. 17 and 18.

It was only by making use of the famous Williamson camera that it was possible to produce this spectacle that has astounded great audiences wherever shown.

Through 8,000 feet of the most amazing film that was ever unveiled, audiences are led for miles through the cradle of the deep to witness sights that human eye has never before gazed upon. To preclude all danger of monotony, the action is also continued on the surface of the water, on land and in the sky. The torpedoing of a ship and four men's dizzying plunge from a balloon, are two of the thrills that are staged out of the depths.

The climax of the narrative is also one that outdoes the most fervid romancing of a Poe or a Maupassant. It is the last stage in the career of Capt. Nemo—his funeral down in the habitat of the deep sea fish. It is a scene that never can be forgotten, when six faithful friends bear the body of their commander through the trackless wastes of the ocean and lay him away for his last, long sleep in a bed of coral.

The Servian Swineherd.

In any Servian village there is only one swineherd, and he leads all the pigs of the community. At night he brings them home, and they disperse to their sties in the same orderly way as they pass the houses to which they belong. They require no attention and no singling out.

PROFESSOR LOSES POSITION

Dismissed From Minnesota "U" for Pro-German Leanings.

St. Paul, Sept. 14.—Professor W. A. Schaper was dismissed from his position at the head of the political science department of the University of Minnesota by the board of regents after an investigation which convinced the board that he is not in sympathy with the United States in the war.

The inquiry was made at the request of the state public safety commission, to whose ears reports of his disloyalty had come.

Professor Schaper was summoned before the board and questioned as to his sentiments. The testimony taken satisfied the regents that the charge was well founded.

OPERATING A SUBMARINE.

The Method When the Ship is About to Make an Attack.

Every submarine has its commander—generally a captain—who acts as the very brains of the ship. No one else can give orders, for so inter-connected are all the machines that the conflicting commands from more than one officer would almost surely result in an accident; hence every one reports directly to the captain through the second officer in command, who, by the way, is also responsible for the correct operation of everything from the ballast tanks to the torpedoes.

In making the attack the captain mans the periscope in the main operating room, just beneath the conning tower. The lenses and prisms in the periscope tube transmit the images from the sighting piece above the water down to the periscope eyepiece.

When the vessel dives the decks are first cleared. Then the hatches are sealed down and the oil engines are stopped in quick succession. Storage batteries are turned on to drive the electric propelling motors. Electric machinery must be used under water because the oil engines consume precious air and exhaust poisonous gases.

On the next word from the captain water from outside is allowed to fill the huge ballast tanks in the central hull. Other ballast tanks at the ends of the boat are partially filled to hold the ship on an even keel. This trimming of the submarine, of course, can be delicately controlled by the buoyancy gauges and controls in the operating room.

The weight of all this water causes the submarine to sink, but not completely. The horizontal rudders at the stern of the ship are used to give the final touches to the dive. The commander directs the man at the wheel how far down he wishes to go. By watching the depth gauges in front of him the wheelman can so tip the diving rudders that the proper depth can be found immediately and held exactly.

It takes but a minute or two to dive. In torpedoing a ship the vessel must be turned to aim the torpedo tubes, which lie parallel with the central axis of the submarine—in the bow. The command is given to fire. The gunners in the forward compartment receive the order through speaking tubes or telephones. The torpedo is discharged from its tube by compressed air.—Popular Science Monthly.

Why Shoes Wear Out.

The average step is twenty-six inches. This means 2,437 steps to the mile, or 12,185 in a five mile day. A person weighing 160 pounds in a day has pounded into his shoes 974 tons and 1,600 pounds of meat, bone and trouble, and all this he carries above his shoes. Men buy three pairs of shoes a year. A steel hammer weighing 100 pounds coming down at that rate for four months would have to be renewed each day and would have to be fished out of the deepest hole in the earth at the end of four months.—New York Mail.

Which Was the Bigger?

It is very amusing to try to repeat this:

Mrs. Biggar had a baby. Which was the bigger? The baby was a little bigger. Which was the bigger, Mr. Biggar or the baby? Mr. Biggar was Father Biggar. Mr. Biggar died. Was the baby then bigger than Mrs. Biggar? No, for the baby was fatherless.—Kansas City Star.

HOOVER'S POWERS
GREATEST OF ALLAre So Far-reaching That They Cannot Be Comprehended.

PRESIDENT HIS ONLY BOSS

Nation Was Forced to Select Some One to Control the Food Supply and Prices, and Hoover Turned Out to Be the Man—He Exercises the Powers Granted to the Executive.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Sept. 14.—[Special.]—More powerful than any cabinet officer is Herbert C. Hoover, the food administrator. Of course when we get right down to bottom facts the power of Hoover is in the president, but that is true of all the cabinet members and other appointees of the president, particularly those who hold their positions at the pleasure of the president.

But in regard to Hoover, his power is so extensive, so far-reaching and so important that it can scarcely be comprehended. He not only controls the foods and everything that enters into their production in this country, but his power extends to the food supplies of other countries.

Must Trust Somebody.

The grant of power, given in name to the president, but actually to Hoover, was criticised severely in congress, but the fact remains that the country had to trust somebody. It could not trust those who produced, bought and sold the food products. They would naturally make all they could out of the demand for food. That was foreseen, and it became apparent that the government through the executive should take control. And Hoover is the man chosen to exercise the great power granted to the president.

Men From the Ranks.

Senator Gronna of North Dakota and Senator Calder of New York were exchanging comments about incomes of the farmers and workmen.

"Can the senator," asked Gronna, "say whether any of the laboring men living in the city of New York have incomes amounting to a million dollars or $500,000 or $100,000?"

"Of course," responded Calder, "no laboring man working with his hands all the year has an income of $50,000. But likewise many of the men returning incomes of the magnitude suggested were, in the beginning, laboring men. Many of them began their lives upon the farm. I will venture the statement that 75 per cent of the men whose names are returned as earning incomes exceeding $1,000,000 and residing in the city of New York came from the farm and made their beginning there and then established themselves beyond the limits of their farms in the great metropolis."

"I want to add a striking illustration," said Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania. "The greater part of the executive heads of the iron and steel industries in Pennsylvania literally rose from the ranks, from positions where they only earned a dollar and a half or less a day and rose to the heads of these great concerns and acquired whatever capital they may possess on account of their remarkable ability as executives and their knowledge of metallurgical processes."

"And you might go a step further," remarked William Alden Smith of Michigan, "and say that practically all the heads of the great transportation systems of the country started away down the line in humble positions."

Of course it is well understood that the holiday attendance at ball games, theaters, excursions, picnics and other places of pleasure is greater than on other occasions, but it does not follow that such should be the case with a hard working body. And yet the holiday attendance of the senate on Labor day showed seventy senators present and answering to their names. And this when nearly everybody else were trying to have a good time.

Purchasing Power of a Penny.

Some expert in mathematics or good at guessing has put forth the statement that the purchasing power of a penny is 36 per cent less than a decade since. It was about that time, perhaps before, that the hue and cry was raised about the high cost of living and a great movement set on foot to reduce that cost. And, although the campaign against this cost of living was vigorous and earnest, there was no change. On the contrary, there was a steady increase even before the war came along to increase prices still further.

Senatorial Curios.

There are senators who will speak for half a day on a subject and then ask for a vote. Commenting on this fact, one of the senators remarked: "Our colleagues who ask for a vote as soon as they conclude their speeches are like the man who says, 'When I have concluded there is nothing more to say.' But the senate does not accept their judgment."

There are other senators who speak often and long, who frequently complain of lack of attention and yet who will leave the senate when they conclude their remarks and will not listen to the other side. They are in the category of those who think there is nothing more to be said when they finish their arguments.

Home-Reading Course For Our
Citizen-Soldiers

(Issued by the War Department and all rights to reprint reserved)

This course of thirty daily lessons is offered to the men selected for service in the National Army as a practical help in getting started in the right way. It is informal in tone and does not attempt to give binding rules and directions. These are contained in the various manuals and regulations of the United States Army, to which this Course is merely introductory.

GUARD DUTY

(PRECEDING LESSONS—1. Your Post of Honor. 2. Making Good as a Soldier. 3. Nine Qualities of a Soldier. 4. Getting Ready for Camp. 5. First Days in Camp. 6. Cleanliness in Camp. 7. Your Health. 8. Marching and Care of Feet. 9. Your Equipment and Arms. 10. Recreation in Camp. 11. Playing the Game. 12. Team Work in the Army. 13. Grouping Men into Teams. 14. The Team Leaders. 15. Fighting arms of the service. 16. Staff Branches of the Service—1. 17. Staff Branches of the Service—H. 18. Army Insignia. 19. The Army System of Training. 20. Close-Order drill. 21. Extended-Order Drill.)

In addition to drilling and fighting as a member of a squad, company, regiment, or other "team" of the Army, you will have certain important duties as an individual soldier. These duties call for a higher grade of intelligence and self reliance and throw on you greater personal responsibility. This is not something to be dreaded or avoided. As you develop the soldierly qualities you will jump at every chance to take responsibility and to distinguish yourself by the courage and good judgment with which you act.

Probably your simplest individual duty will be that of an interior guard. Interior guards are used in camp or "peace regulations." (Manual of Interior Guard duty, par. 3.)

In the training camp your company will be required at times to perform guard duty. This means that one or more of your commissioned or non-commissioned officers, and a number of privates will be detailed for this duty. Customarily a detail of his kind continues for 24 hours, from noon of one day to noon of the next; each private takes his turn at standing guard.

Personal Responsibility

Guard duty is especially recommended as "of value in discipline and training, because of the direct individual responsibility which is imposed and required to be discharged in a definite and precise manner." (Manual of Interior Guard Duty, par. 8.)

Your duties as a sentinel are best expressed in the general orders which every sentinel is required to repeat whenever called upon to do so. Memorize these general orders now and never permit yourself to forget them. Think them over and you will see that they are clear and exact. They are meant to be strictly obeyed.

My general orders are:
1. To take charge of this post and all Government property in view.
2. To walk my post in a military manner, keeping always on the alert and observing everything that takes place within sight or hearing.
3. To report all violations of orders I am instructed to enforce.
4. To report all calls from posts more distant from the guardhouse than my own.
5. To quit my post only when properly relieved.
6. To receive, obey, and pass on to the sentinel who relieves me all orders from the commanding officer, officer of the day, and officers and non-commissioned officers of the guard only.
7. To talk to no one except in line of duty.
8. In case of fire or disorder to give the alarm.
9. To allow no one to commit a nuisance on or near my post.
10. In any case not covered by instructions to call the corporal of the guard.
11. To salute all officers, and all colors and standards not cased.
12. To be especially watchful at night, and, during the time for challenging, to challenge all persons on or near my post, and to allow no one to pass without proper authority.

Why People Get Fat.

Among curious popular fallacies is the idea that an individual may become obese without eating too much and may remain obese even when very little food is taken. If a person each day eats a butter ball weighing only a third of an ounce in excess of the food actually needed it seems trifling, insignificant, but continued over a year it would involve a gain in weight of nine pounds of fatty tissue or 18 ten pounds.

Of course these remarks on guard duty can give you only a general idea of its nature and of your own responsibility. But enough has been said to indicate that any man has much to learn before he can be called a first class soldier. You will find your months of training slipping by rapidly, especially as you become more and more interested in mastering the varied phases of your new occupation.

"Every soldier should be able to find his way in a strange country; should know how to use a compass; should know how to locate the north star; should be able to travel across country, keeping a given direction, both by day and by night, and by observing landmarks he should be able to return to the starting point whether over the same route or by a more circuitous one. This can easily be learned by a little practice. It adds a great deal to the value of a soldier if he knows how to use a map to find his way. If he knows how to make a rough sketch of the country, he has added to his value as a soldier very much indeed." (Manual for Non-commissioned Officers and Privates, p. 161.)

Of course these remarks on guard duty can give you only a general idea of its nature and of your own responsibility. But enough has been said to indicate that any man has much to learn before he can be called a first class soldier. You will find your months of training slipping by rapidly, especially as you become more and more interested in mastering the varied phases of your new occupation.

of ninety pounds. An ounce of bread or half a glass of milk more than the food requirement for the day will bring about the same result. Conversely, if the quantity of food taken be only slightly below the needs of the body some of the body's own fat is used and the body weight falls, a process which may be extended over a long period of time.—Dr. Graham Lusk in World's Work.

TWO VILLAGES ARE TAKEN

Desperate Fighting Precedes Slav Successes and Germans Lose Many Prisoners and Considerable Booty. Austrian War Office Calls Italian Offensive Failure.

London, Sept. 14.—Following the admission from Berlin that strong Russian pressure south of the Riga-Wenden road caused the withdrawal of Teuton cavalry posts came the announcement from Petrograd that the Russians continue to push forward in the direction of Riga.

In the coast region, according to Petrograd, the village of Kulix has been captured from the Germans. South of the Pakov road the village of Pelme was taken with prisoners and booty after desperate fighting.

German positions to the south of Sventslany, which lies between Vilna and Dvinsk, are being heavily bombarded by the Russian guns.

The situation in France and Belgium continues comparatively quiet, except for the artillery.

In an official statement characterizing the Italian offensive on the Isonzo front as a failure the Austrian war office asserted Italian losses have reached almost a quarter of a million men, including 20,000 prisoners.

The Austrians, in another of their violent assaults against the Italians on Monte San Gabriele, were rewarded with slight gains, but efforts to press these advances failed before the main line of the Italian defenses.

PEACE WITHOUT CONQUEST

Hungarian Premier Also Opposes Economic War.

Amsterdam, Sept. 14.—A moral empire of right replacing brute force of arms and a peace without conquest not detrimental to Hungarian interests are the conditions under which Hungary would be willing to make peace, according to a speech by Dr. Alexander Wekerle, Hungarian premier, before the Hungarian chamber, a Budapest dispatch says.

"We were the first," the premier said, "to express our entire readiness to conclude a lasting peace and this readiness was confirmed by a German reichstag in agreement with the German government."

"We oppose an economic war and are striving for suitable peace that will not be detrimental to us," the premier declared.

40 per cent for the national army, due to start Sept. 19, probably will see little of this cantonnement.

Together with an estimated 1,500 from Illinois and 2,000 from Iowa they will, according to tentative plans of the war department, which became known, be sent at once to Camp Cody, Deming, N. M., to fill out quotas of national guard regiments stationed there.

This will, if carried out, reduce the total number of men to be finally taken care of here to approximately 40,000.

Southern Mangrove.

The rhizophora mangrove, the southern mangrove, is most curious in propagation. The seed sends forth a shoot that really comes through the seed and grows to a foot long. It then falls away and strikes, root end down, in the mud and is at once a plant.

Are You Lucky?

In August the air is full of pollen and dust that cause trouble for some, yet others are never bothered. No remedy does more to relieve hay fever and asthma than Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for coughs, colds and croup. It clears and soothes the afflicted nose, throat and bronchial tubes. H. P. Dunn, druggist.—Adv.

He Felt Like Ninety

Nothing makes a person feel old quicker than disordered kidneys. They cause aches and pains all over the body. A. W. Morgan, Angola, La., writes: "Oh, I suffered with pain in my back. I am 48 years old, but I felt like a man 90 years old. Since I took Foley Kidney Pills I feel like I did when I was 21." H. P. Dunn, druggist.—Adv.

A BANNER DAY AT TABERNACLE

Large Crew on Hand Thursday and Nearly All of the Outside
Work was Completed

THE BIG PLATFORM SEATS 314

Prof. Charles Wicand, Chorus Director, Arrives Saturday—Prayer Meeting Held

Yesterday was the banner day for the work on the tabernacle. A large crew was on hand and nearly all the outside work on the building was completed. Today carpenters and volunteers are putting in the windows and ventilators and setting up the platform.

The platform is one of the big features. It will seat three hundred fourteen people and slopes in three ways toward the center. This gives a great advantage to the musical director who will have his chorus facing him from three sides.

The speakers desk is in the front then immediately back from him is the piano section and the stage for the director and then the choir. The pianos have been donated by the Folsom Music House for use during the entire campaign.

This platform stage will be the largest in this part of the country and will be of great advantage in the musical part of the campaign.

The entire building would be of great advantage for the city to own. It could be used for many purposes, such as chorus work, agricultural exhibits and an auditorium for civic and political gatherings. The churches would have use for such a building for union meetings, suppers and conventions.

Professor Charles Wicand will arrive tomorrow and will meet the chorus for the first time Saturday evening. He asks for a full attendance that the musical end may be given a good start. Each singer will be assigned a special seat which he is supposed to occupy during the entire time.

Tonight the lights will be in and the building illuminated and men are called for to set up seats and do other necessary work within. Men who have not been able to work throughout the day are requested to come tonight as early as possible. H. B. Shaddock will be on hand and direct operations. Later on in the evening the women will serve coffee and sandwiches.

The union prayer meeting was well attended last night and a most interesting meeting was had. Mr. Shaddock spoke on the two first words of the Lord's prayer and was listened to with marked attention. The people present were in an earnest mood for the knowledge of the churches' great undertaking was upon them. Prayer was fervently offered for the divine approval and blessing.

The announcement for the exchange of pupils will be given tomorrow. Today the call is for three hundred people to respond to the demand for singers. Anyone past the eighth grade age is asked to join the Senior chorus.

BRAINERD'S ODDEST STORIES OF TODAY

One Brainerd mother was quite alarmed this morning when she received a letter from her boy who is a volunteer in training at Fort Snelling, in which he informed her he had been shot in both arms and in the back.

"How did it happen?" asked her friend talking over the phone.

"Why out on target practice, I suppose," she said.

"He must have meant that they shot him with a hypodermic needle," said the friend.

"Oh maybe that was it," said the mother, much relieved.

Some committees are right on the dot, some show up hours late and very few are in the class of the Brainerd committee men who appeared for a meeting 50 miles out of town 48 hours in advance of the time set.

The reporter is blamed for a lot of things which happen and some which don't happen and sometimes he really is to blame, but he will not shoulder the mistake of announcing a Northeast Brainerd band concert which was really scheduled for Southeast Brainerd and held there. Somebody else brought in the story all written up and made the sad blunder. Luckily the band knew where they were going to play or else the bass drum might have gone to Northeast Brainerd while the piccolo traveled to Southeast Brainerd.

Some people acquire greatness, some are born great, others just naturally fall into it like the Dispatch reporter who on Sept. 11, it is reported, attended the executive committee meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development Association at Bemidji and was made the general manager of arrangements for the Minnesota Potato Growers association convention in Brainerd and in addition had his picture run in the Duluth News Tribune yesterday. During all that time the reporter was hustling in Brainerd, but he is much obliged just the same to Mayne Stanton or the other good fellows who mixed A. B. Hostetter's name with Hoffbauer's cognomen. Anyway it helped to boost the Brainerd convention and the potatoes.

There is a family on the south side which has had an order in for a Ford and has been waiting three weeks for John Woodhead to bring in a raft of them. You know how it is when you eventually make your payment and sign on the dotted line and wait for the car and plan trips to this place and that and fill up all the Sundays for months to come and then the blamed car can't be delivered just yet because there are so many other people getting busy and getting Fords and starting to really enjoy life. "Do you know" said the lady of this prospective Ford buyer, "we have felt so disappointed that I have lost all interest in cars."

This morning the glad news came that John P. Woodhead had come to town with a fleet of three cars which strung out in the road from Martin Berggreen's filling station at Crow Wing to the Barrows News office. It was a regular procession of Fords and John sold three while enroute and everybody is smiling in that South Side household and getting ready for Sunday's excursion trip.

Moderation. To the man that is forty, who has made moderation in all things his rule, life has only well begun and fame is still possible. The best things in a man's life usually come to him after the age of forty.

OF AID TO RELATIVES

At the request of the Department of State, the American Red Cross has undertaken, through its Bureau of Communication, to communicate messages or inquiries from persons in America concerning the welfare and whereabouts of persons residing in the countries of the Central Powers or in territory occupied by them.

In other belligerent countries this communication is possible, since all enemy subjects being held either as civil or military prisoners of war have the privilege of correspondence granted by international agreement. The United States has not closed German civilians as prisoners and consequently the closing of postal service to the Central Powers has caused serious individual hardship.

Individuals wishing to make inquiry concerning the welfare and whereabouts of friends or relatives in territory belonging to, or occupied by, the Central Powers, may communicate with the Bureau of Communication, American Red Cross, Washington, D. C. Proper inquiries and messages will be transmitted on a special form to the International Red Cross in Geneva, they will be forwarded to the individuals for whom they are intended.

Answers will be returned to the International Red Cross and by them will be sent to Washington. The Red Cross will then communicate the information received to the writers of the original letters. Two 2c stamps must be inclosed for postage. A similar method is being devised for the transmission of inquiries from the Central Powers to America. This will also be handled by the Red Cross.

The following points are to be observed by all inquirers:

1. Letters of inquiry must be addressed to the Bureau of Communication; not to the person concerning whom inquiry is made.

2. Letters must be concise, since only the briefest communication can be sent.

3. They must mention only personal matters, such as communications concerning the condition of members of the family and requests for similar information.

4. Letters must be legible and must be in English, French, Italian, Russian, German, Polish or Hungarian.

5. They must include the full name, address and occupation of the sender and the full name, address, occupation and age of the person for whom the inquiry is destined.

6. Inquiries may not be made often than once in six weeks.

The Bureau of Communication reserves the right to refuse to transmit any information or inquiry which appears to be contrary to the national welfare.

"MY SOLDIER GIRL"

Le Conte and Fletcher, who have produced many pleasing musical productions that have brought happiness to many theatre-goers, have ventured forth this season with a big musical spectacle that is within keeping of the military atmosphere, entitled "My Soldier Girl."

This energetic showmen have spared no expense to make this their latest production, a success and money has been invested at every angle. The costumes are gorgeous, the scenery a work of art, and is within keeping with the artistic environment. The novelties are new and a surprise in store for the theatre-patron when this big success is presented here.

The producers have engaged a clever New York cast and have gotten together a wonderful "pony" ballet to carry out the novelty dancing numbers and ensembles. There are nearly twenty numbers, including a score of song hits. The music is by Omer Herbert, a French composer, and this score does him credit—so cleverly worked out are his compositions.

The book is by J. Lorch Barber and comes up to the expectations, pleasing the most severe critics.

A coat of Minnesota Paint, properly applied, measures three one-thousandths of an inch in thickness. Think what extreme wear and endurance is expected of this thin film. The same thickness of armor plate would not afford equal protection for the same length of time.

The Patriot.

Whether right or wrong in its domestic or its foreign policy, judged by whatever standard, whether of expediency or of principle, the American citizen can recognize no social duty intervening between himself and his country. He may urge reform, but he has no right to destroy. Intrusted with the precious inheritance of liberty, endowed with the gift of participation in a popular government, the constitution makes him at once the beneficiary and the defender of interests and institutions he cannot innocently endanger, and when he becomes a traitor to his country he commits equal treason against mankind.—John Albion Andrew.

Curly Hair.

Curly hair is a constitutional, hereditary phenomenon. The curly hair curls because it is fat. Straight hair is cylindrical. Being fat, the hair has a natural tendency to assume a spiral shape. Cutting has no effect, as the cause of the fatness lies in the shape of the follicle. Hair issuing from a slanting, crooked follicle is bound to be flattened and twisted.

CONTRACTS LET FOR BIG AMERICAN FLEET

Washington, Sept. 14.—Contracts for construction of a government owned shipbuilding yard at Hog Island, Pa., and for the construction therein of fifty fabricated steel merchant vessels were let by the emergency fleet corporation to the American International corporation.

These contracts are the first actually signed for the three new plants in which the government will have built a large number of fabricated ships.

The Hog Island plant will cost slightly less than $20,000,000. The other contracts will go to the Submarine Boat corporation for a plant at Newark and to the Merchants Shipbuilding company for one at Chester, Pa.

The first of the fifty ships will be completed by the American International corporation in ten or eleven months and the entire number will be finished probably in fifteen or sixteen months.

Shipping board officials believe the fabrication of ships will mean America within a few years will have the largest fleet of merchant ships of any nation in the world.

PERSHING NOTE IN BIBLE CALLS FOR ARMY VALOR.

New York, Sept. 14.—Major General J. J. Pershing has sent to American soldiers, through the New York Bible society, the message, just made public, which will be inserted in the small khaki covered Testaments given to the men:

"Aroused against a nation waging war in violation of all Christian principles our people are fighting in the cause of liberty.

"Hardships will be your lot, but the teachings of our Savior will give you strength. Let your valor as a soldier and your conduct as a man be an inspiration to your comrades and an honor to your country."

Miles and Knots.

A circle is divided into 21,000 minutes of arc. It is supposed that the circumference of the earth at the equator is 24,808,592 miles. But a knot or nautical mile equals this number of statute miles divided by 21,000, which, performed and reduced to feet, gives 6,086.3, the legal statute mile being 5,280 feet.

RUSSIAN REVOLT HAS COLLAPSED

General Korniloff's Headquarters Surrenders.

NEW POLICY IS OUTLINED

Vice Premier Nekrasoff Issues Public Statement Containing New Leadership of Armies and Saying Plan for Complete Military Control Will Not Be Pursued.

Petrograd, Sept. 14.—Following an announcement by M. Skobelev, minister of labor, before the executive committee of the Council of Soldiers' and Workmen's Deputies that the revolt of General Korniloff has collapsed and his headquarters has surrendered, Vice Premier Nekrasoff issued a public statement outlining the policy of the new government and the future leadership of the army.

General Ruskay will command the Northern front, General Dragomiroff the Southwestern front and General Diedrichs will be quartermaster general.

The policy which General Korniloff demanded for army control will not be pursued, the vice premier said.

The government, he continued, will be conducted on the same social basis as formerly and will not be a coalition.

Admiral D. N. Vardavsky has been appointed minister of marine.

M. Ayskentieff, minister of the interior, said that as a result of the Korniloff revolt all the Russian fronts for three days remained without the least defense and without command.

The severest penalty, he added, ought to be inflicted on General Korniloff. He said the government will do nothing to mitigate his fate.

The diplomatic representatives of the allied powers have issued a statement denying allegations made by some of the newspapers that they are taking steps either to support General Korniloff's action or to hinder his suppression.

RESULT OF THE GREAT WAR

German Social Democratic Party Nearly Wiped Out.

Berlin, Sept. 14.—The managing committee of the German Social Democracy has issued a condensed report, which is to be submitted to the party's convention to be held at Wurzburg next month. The record covers the three years ending March 31.

The outstanding features of the statistical record for this period is the appalling drop in the party's active membership. On March 31, 1914, this numbered 1,085,900. In March of this year the membership was only 243,000.

The report says that at the outbreak of the war half the male membership of the party was called to the colors and that since then fully 75 per cent of its members have been drafted.

MANY NEW YORKERS BEING VICTIMIZED

New York, Sept. 14.—Many persons in ordinary circumstances who subscribed for Liberty loan bonds and now find themselves in need of money are being victimized into selling their bonds at a much lower price than the market quotation, according to a statement issued here by John Muir, a New York stock broker, who took an active part in the last Liberty loan campaign.

This has occurred, it was said, in the poorer districts of the city, especially among the foreign speaking population.

"Not knowing where to go," the statement said, "they fall victims of unscrupulous 'private banks' and accept the first bid that is offered."

The statement pointed out that such a situation will tend to "shake the confidence of the public in the government bonds and prove an obstacle in the success of the next loan."

NAVY WILL AVOID ERRORS

Officials Plan Triple Check on All Sea Battles.

Washington, Sept. 14.—To avoid issuance in the future of such erroneous reports as that of Tuesday concerning the sinking of German submarines a plan involving triple checking of official statements of the navy department has been presented to Secretary Josephus Daniels. It involves the co-operation of officers of the navy bureau of operations and editors of the committee on public information. The error also has led officials responsible for war department publicity to take additional precautions against mistakes.

MORE INTRIGUE IS MADE PUBLIC

Secretary Lansing Involves Another Diplomat.

SWEDEN GAVE AID TO GERMANY

Charge in Mexico Was Depended on by Kaiser's Minister to Furnish Information "From the Hostile Camp" and to Transmit Messages to Berlin.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Another chapter of the story of German intrigue in neutral countries and among neutral diplomats was revealed by Secretary Lansing in the form of a letter to the imperial chancellor from the notorious Von Eckhardt, the German minister at Mexico City, to whom the intercepted Zimmerman note was addressed.

It discloses that Folke Cronholm, the Swedish charge in Mexico, was depended on by the German diplomat to furnish information "from the hostile camp" and to transmit communications to Berlin and that Von Eckhardt wished him rewarded by a secret award from the kaiser of the "order of the crown of the second class."

This letter was written on March 8, 1916, and apparently has been in the possession of the American government for a long time.

It was made public without comment, shedding light on the methods of another Swedish diplomatic representative in this hemisphere.

Baron Akerhielm, Swedish charge here, said that Cronholm was dismissed from the diplomatic service last January.

He would not discuss the cause, but there was no intimation that it was in any way connected with Cronholm's relations with the Germans.

Baron Akerhielm called at the state department to inform Secretary Lansing that he had received from his government the statement already given to the public at Stockholm explaining that Sweden had forwarded dispatches from the German minister at Buenos Ayres to Berlin in German code without knowledge of their contents.

Failed to File Statement.

He did not leave a copy of the statement. It is assumed that the Stockholm foreign office will not address any communication to the American government on the subject.

Officials here are watching with interest the situation in Argentina, where reports indicate that the indignation of both the people and the government have been aroused to such a pitch that the government may have difficulty in keeping itself from being forced into breaking relations with Germany, regardless of any explanations from Berlin, and of being pressed into a sharp controversy with Stockholm.

No representations either to Sweden or to Mexico, it is understood, will be made by the United States in connection with the conduct of the Swedish representative in Mexico City, but it is regarded as not improbable that the Mexican government may make it the occasion for action that would show its earnestness in the matter of neutrality.

Von Eckhardt's part in the latest chapter has been no surprise.

This government has known of his activities long before the discovery of the evidence given by the Zimmerman note and since then his activities in propaganda have been watched.

SWEDEN TO STAY NEUTRAL

Stockholm Press Discusses the Luxemburg Affair.

Stockholm, Sept. 14.—The conservative newspaper Dagblad prints a bitter editorial on the statements in the British and American press concerning the Luxemburg affair. The newspaper says:

"The barrage fire from New York and London editors will fall entirely to frighten Sweden out of its neutrality."

The Svenska Dagbladet resents what it terms "interference in Swedish domestic problems," and says the allied press is utilizing the present difficulties as propaganda for the formation of a "Swedish party." The newspaper adds:

"All attempts to differentiate between a criminal government and a deceived people in this case is doomed to disappointment. All hints as to how we are to group our political parties will not affect us."

WARNED TO REMAIN AWAY

British Subjects Advised to Avoid Russia at Present.

Stockholm, Sept. 14.—The British legation here was advised by British Ambassador Buchanan at Petrograd that it would be inadvisable for British subjects to visit Russia at this time.

American Minister Morris has cabled the state department asking advisability of making a similar announcement as regards Americans.

U. S. ARTILLERY ON THE FRENCH FRONT

American Training Camp in France, Sept. 14.—A large contingent of American artillery has joined the expeditionary army and is well along with its intensive training under French supervisory instruction.

Hitherto the arrival of the artillery contingent has been carefully guarded and permission to mention the fact has just been given.

The American artillerymen are using the latest models of the famous French seventy-fives and six-inch howitzers.

Korniloff to Surrender.

Petrograd, Sept. 14.—General Korniloff has communicated to the government his intention to surrender on the arrival of General Alexieff, commander-in-chief of the Russian armies, at Mohilev.

The Cabbage Butterfly.

The most destructive enemy of the cabbage and related crops is the cabbage butterfly. This lays its eggs upon a cabbage leaf. The eggs hatch into green caterpillars, and these eat the leaves. In 1883, says the Journal of Heredity, an ichneumon fly was imported from Europe to keep the cabbage butterfly in check. The fly lays its eggs in the body of the caterpillar; the larvae which hatch from these eggs eat the caterpillar's insides, cut their way out through the empty skin and spin cocoons from which the flies emerge.

"It is interesting to note," adds the Journal of Heredity, "that the parasite is in turn preyed upon by a super-parasite, a little chalcid fly, and so on down ad infinitum, no doubt."

Do Something Better Than the Other Fellow--- and ADVERTISE

Advertising cannot accomplish the impossible any more than barren ground can yield rich crop.

But how advertising does make things hum when the product and proposition are right, the men and methods above board, when there's an honest purpose and earnest effort from bundle boy to general manager to serve efficiency, to deal honestly, to sell good goods, to price fairly.

Oil up the machinery of your business, imbue your organization with the spirit of true service, make your business worthy of the good will, the confidence, the patronage of the people.

In this fertile field then sow the seed of advertising and it will bring forth abundant crops in increased business and augmented prestige.

Your store news in the Dispatch will be read in practically every home in Brainerd and vicinity every evening.
